

Introducing the agent AP-1

Single ear, noise cancelling headset

The agent AP-1 is a single ear noise-cancelling headset with great sound and an adjustable fit for all-day comfort. The single earpiece means you can concentrate on calls and stay aware of your office surroundings. The mic boom rotates 270 degrees so you can wear the AP-1 on either ear for the style that suits you, with technology that makes it the ideal headset for offices & call centres.
